

Rotating Service Body

How to retain attraction and experience?

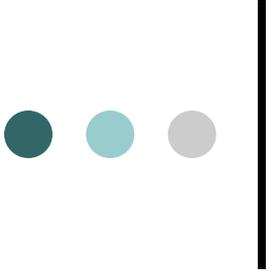

How can we retain attraction and experience in a rotating body?

- Attraction and Service
- Service Prospection (Head Hunting)
- Mentorship
- Tools for Keeping the Ball Rolling

Attraction and Service

- When are we attractive and when are we bothering people? Give examples.
- What can we do to foster enjoyability?
(and keeping responsibility in mind)
- How can we put personal skills to use?

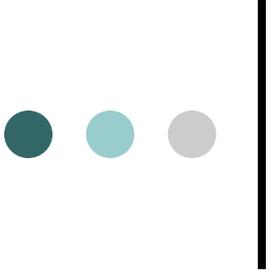

Attraction and Service

- How do we employ positive reinforcement?
- How could we celebrate the successful completion of a service commitment?
- How can we convey the personal benefits of service?

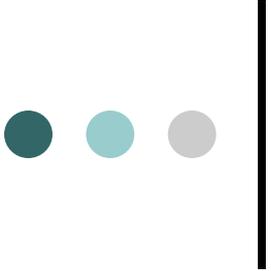

Service Prospection (Head Hunting)

- Should we use sponsorship to encourage potential candidates?
If so. How?
- How can we search for candidates?
- How can service requirements be supportive or obstructive in finding new members for our services?
Give Examples.

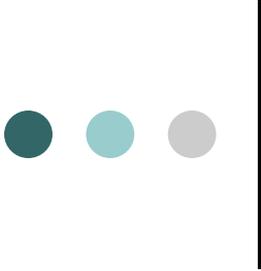

Mentorship

- How could Service Mentorship (Service Sponsorship) work?
To help retain experience?
To support inexperienced trusted servants?
- Who's responsibility should it be to find a Service Mentor (Service Sponsor)?
Trusted servant himself? Committee? Area?
- How can we support trusted servants?
In case of lack of human resources inside a committee.

Tools for Keeping the Ball Rolling

- What tools can we use to make the service uncomplicated and accessible to anyone who is willing to learn?
- What tools can we use to retain the know-how developed in a position or committee?

Small Group Discussion

- Choose your table.
- Take 2 min. of silence and concentrate on what you want to share with the others.
- Choose a facilitator.
- Choose a member to collect notes on a sheet of paper.
- Compile the relevant notes to a flip chart.
- Choose someone who present the flip chart.